

THE CLEVELAND MUSEUM OF ART
CLEVELAND 6. OHIO

FOR RELEASE Upon receipt

TELEPHONE: GARFIELD 1-7340

SPOT ANNOUNCEMENT

Museum Lecture - August 28, 1963 8:15 pm.

Should be Haskell

Francis Haskell, professor at King's College, Cambridge, England, will discuss, AUTHORITY AND SUBVERSION: SOME POLITICAL IMPLICATIONS OF ARTISTIC STYLES, at The Cleveland Museum of Art, Wednesday, August 28 at 8:15 p.m. The topic explores interactions between art and politics.

Mr. Haskell is touring the United States and, will also lecture at Harvard, Chicago and Northwestern Universities.

He has recently published PATRONS AND PAINTERS: A STUDY OF THE RELATIONS BETWEEN ART AND SOCIETY IN ITALY IN THE SEVENTEENTH AND EIGHTEENTH CENTURIES.

M. 8.16.63

(OVER)